EA Walk Team Raises Money for Research

More than 2,000 dedicated walkers painted the town purple in the 2010 OKC Memory Walk. The event, held at the AT&T Bricktown Ballpark, on Saturday, Oct. 23, raised more than $116,000. Donations are still being accepted until Nov. 30.

Endodontic Associates fielded the largest team of 47 registered walkers. To date, EA has raised $2,229 and is ranked eighth of 102 teams in money earned. Our team had the honor of carrying the memory flags in honor of people who have died from Alzheimer's disease. Many of us walked to honor family members.

We discovered that EA has some great cooks when we hosted a bake sale and silent auction to raise money at our north office.

A pizza luncheon was donated for us to sell, and our most fun event was a contest between Dr. Beasley, Carla and Susan to collect change, with the one collecting the most getting to kiss Dr. Duke's dog, Dwight, at our company picnic that followed the walk. Dr. Beasley was the winner, hands down! These three events raised $814.

Alzheimer's is a devastating disease with one person in the U.S. being diagnosed every 70 seconds. All the money raised stays here to make sure Oklahoma families who face the long journey associated with Alzheimer's disease will receive support from the Alzheimer's Association ■

Susan Reiswig and other walk participants hold colorful flags, each bearing the name of people with Alzheimers. Susan, whose husband Kent passed away in 2008 from Alzheimers, organized our walk in his memory.

Audrey Armstrong

Audrey Armstrong & family
Endodontic Assistant

In early 2002, Audrey Armstrong joined our team as a chairside assistant. She says she loves coming to work at Endodontic Associates every day. "The doctors are wonderful to the patients and staff," she exclaimed. "EA has become my second home."

Audrey has been married to Nick, a fourth year medical student at OU, for four years. They have a beautiful 16 month old son, Owen. She loves spending time with her two guys! In her spare time, she also enjoys going to the lake with her friends and family.
